

PHEN

Prostate Health Education Network, Inc.

"Daddy's Boys" Play Feedback and Comments 2018

PHEN

Prostate Health Education Network, Inc.

"Amazing!"

"Awesome and much need knowledge. God Bless."

"Due to significant prevalence in my husband's family he has been testing since age 35. Thank you for bringing awareness through the arts."

"Awesome show both nights."

"Excellent Performance, Knowledgeable and Informative!"

"Great approach to addressing an issue. Great production, well written, outstanding performance and a gifted and talented cast. Thanks for the great product. Thanks Tom for PHEN."

"Great performance, presentation and very knowledgeable on the subject of family!"

"Great story line, Great music and a Great teaching tool!"

"I am a female and will definitely support the men in my family and life to pursue the exams and participate in clinical trials."

"Keep the wonderful work up. May God bless you and staff."

"Learned a lot in an inspiring way. Better than any Tyler Perry play I've seen!"

"Loved the play and intro. It was excellent and great music."

"Thanks for spreading the word and sharing information about prostate cancer."

"The actors were outstanding. Wonderful. Loved the father, son, conflict."

"Great way to get the information out making people aware of prostate cancer."

"Excellent resources and entertaining way to make us aware of the prostate crisis among African America men"

"Great way to get the message across to people regarding prostate cancer in a non-threatening way. Kudos!"

"I thoroughly enjoyed the play. The message that it conveyed was timely and relevant to African-American men needing to pay closer attention to their health. As Black men, we need to have regular physicals. The was the message of the play and I thank you for it"

"Workshop Experts and the play were a tremendous blessing!"